The Youth Team Officers came in to give a report on their activities. All is going well look in their section for details.

Shows:

May 6th Woodstock. The Judges were Tracey Beaulieu for the ring and Ed Golembeski for trail. Ernie was unable to be with was. This was our biggest show Debbie reported that we had 161 exhibitors. Due to this large numbers are cater ran out of many items on her menu this was not their fault we just didn't expect the numbers it was a shame that people choose to take it out on others. Robin shared about the bathrooms and starting with the next show there will be Bathroom Attends our cost will increase but we will still be paying less than last year. Robin asked if there were any questions, comments or concerns. There were none.

May 20th Brooklyn. The show went off ok. Robin explained about what happen with our date we had a verbal agreement back in December, but did not find out until the Wednesday before who we were sharing the grounds with. The only problem we thought we might have was with Life Star but all went well. Robin asked if there were any questions, comments, or concerns. There were none.

New Business:

Up coming Shows: Wood stock June 3rd.

The Judges will be Ernie Keene for the ring and Tracey Beaulieu for the trail. You should have contacted Debbie for stalls and please contact Robin tonight or by the Wednesday before the show for the Pot Luck. A reminder to all Saturday arrival is after 3:00pm and you need to have you stall cleaned and checked before you leave. Robin shared that are Ribbon Company ran out of our style so we would be using stock ribbons there is no increase in our cost. We will back to our regular ribbons at our next show.

Club NEWS!

Falls Creek June 17th.

If you want stall without a late fee you need to contact Debbie by June 9th, and Robin by June 13th for the Pot Luck. Saturday arrival is after 3:00pm and you don't need to clean out your stall.

Robin shared a flyer regarding horse ownership at UNCONN on May 31st.

John did roll call since Christin was not there. Meeting adjourned at 8:20pm.

Respectfully submitted
Deborah Luond (secretary)
